

LORENA JARAMILLO

New York, NY.
lorenajrmllo@gmail.com
929 355 4385

SUMMARY

Mexican performer, educator and writer residing in New York City. Lorena earned a BA in Dance with a concentration in Dance Studies and a Minor in Arts for Communities at Marymount Manhattan College. She is interested in expanding arts accessibility and dance education, which led her to work with various underfunded communities in the U.S and Latin America. Lorena also engages with critical dance studies and the ways the dancing body intersects with identity.

SKILLS

- Teaching artist and facilitator
- Writing
- Organizational skills
- Public Speaking / Leading
- Creative problem solving
- Bilingual (English/Spanish)
- Proficiency in Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Video Editing and Zoom.

WORK EXPERIENCE

CoopDanza

New York, NY

Lorena served as facilitator and translator for the 2020 virtual Indigenous Children Festival

2020

Mobilized Voices (MOBIV)

New York, NY

Lorena is a dancer and researcher for activist dance collective MOBIV. Her role doubles as performer and facilitator of community in person and online events.

2020 - Present

Sydney L Mosley Dances

New York, NY

Lorena is part of the SLM Dances Company. She was a facilitator for The Window Sex Project Workshop, a movement based, community engagement event. She also assisted in the creation of their 2019 10K fundraising campaign, by helping with the promotion and media campaign

2019 - Present

Admissions Tour Guide at Marymount Manhattan's College

New York, NY

Lorena was in charge of interacting with prospect students, giving tours and filing admission documents.

2016- 2019

JUNTOS AMBASSADOR Teaching Artist

Mexico and US

Lorena travelled to a rural indigenous community in Southern Mexico for four weeks to teach, choreograph and promote dance education. She was responsible for coordinating the trip's logistics, class schedule, performance repertoire and fundraising.

2017-2018

Fundraise Caller at Marymount Manhattan College

New York, NY

Lorena responsibilities included calling alumni, parents and previous donors of The College and asking for donations.

2016-2018

EDUCATION

Marymount Manhattan College Dance Department

New York, NY

BA in Dance with a concentration in Dance Studies

Minor in Arts for Communities

Special Achievements: Lorena earned the "Gold Key" for Dance Studies, awarded by Jens Giersdorf. She presented two research papers on Honors Day and was a guest speaker at Dialogues in Dance.

2015-2019